The Arts Trail committee are never afraid to take the bull by the horns.

I'm delighted to support the Emsworth Arts Trail again this year.

The Trail has become a fixture in our cultural calendar both locally and across the region, and does so much to promote our area, showcasing Emsworth as a wonderful place to live, work and visit.

I look forward to taking part in the Trail again in 2019, including meeting some of the diverse and excellent artists.

Welcome to the Emsworth Arts Trail 2019

Emsworth Arts Trail is ready for take off.

The annual Emsworth Arts Trail is set to scale new creative heights this year thanks to a record-breaking number of artists and groups taking part. Venues throughout the town will see well over 100 participants exhibit during the last weekend in April and first in May.

Since the trail began in 2001, with just a handful of artists exhibiting in their home studios, the event has grown to include many local businesses and community venues. Artists and makers exhibit their work in local shops, halls, pubs, sailing clubs, home studios and pop up galleries; resulting in a creative and colourful voyage of discovery.

With the majority of venues located within a mile of the town centre, why not make a family day out of it by walking or cycling along the trail? Plus, with such a wide variety of work on show, there is something to interest everyone from painters, printmakers, photographers, textile artists, wood carvers and ceramicists to jewellers and sculptors.

We look forward to meeting you.

16 Julie Turner

6 Beach Road, Emsworth PO10 7JS

Julie is a contemporary printmaker. Her experiments in mono printing, screen printing and linocut are strongly influenced by the local environment and her love of colour. Images are hand printed, allowing the ink to sit above the paper to give an intensity and tactile feel not achieved by commercial printing. Julie is a member of Omega Printmakers and Emsworth Artists.

Travel information

Parking: In the centre of Emsworth, there are three pay-and-display car parks and some free on-street parking restricted to 45 minutes, although these spaces tend to fill up quickly. There is plenty of free on-street parking just a short distance away from the centre and most of the venues away from the town centre also have plenty of free parking.

89 Thomas Bain

Thomas Bain at Wensley Gardens: I make ceramics that celebrate form and function. I work in porcelain and stoneware clays and fire to a mid/high range with good reduction which produces copper reds and deep celadons. The richness, depth and colour of the glaze enhancing the wheel thrown forms. I also make Raku fired ceramics.

101 Karen Ongley-Snook

Karen's fused and stained glass garden pieces are designed to bring structure and colour to the garden. Stainless steel columns traditionally made with a contemporary edge and fused glass fish moving gently in the breeze – these pieces are designed to withstand our British climate. Karen will also be showing her fun fused glass lollipops.

Acknowledgements

We would like to thank all our advertisers, businesses and the Emsworth community for their invaluable support. We especially thank Hazle & Co. for providing estate agent boards for advertising and The Brookfield Hotel for providing a wonderful venue for The Sneak Preview on Thursday 4th April from 6.00 to 9.00. We also thank all the people who kindly allowed us to hang banners and posters on fences, walls and railings.

Adopt an Artist

Once again many local businesses have 'adopted' an artist for the Arts Trail, bringing a taste of our work to the very heart of the village. We would like to thank all the participating businesses for their enthusiastic support and hope they enjoy being part of this exciting annual event. These businesses are listed below, together with their 'adoptees' and their catalogue number in brackets. Look out for our window stickers.
